PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, hospitals maintain health care services for every person in our community on a twenty-four hour, seven day a week basis; and

WHEREAS, hospitals work with other health care agencies in safeguarding the health of our community; and

WHEREAS, hospitals serve an educational need for the training of medical and paramedical personnel in the allied health fields; and

WHEREAS, hospitals are engaged in research for the prevention and curing of disease; and

WHEREAS, each member of the hospital staff contributes to the care of patients;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT KNOWN THAT I, FRANK L. FARRAR, Governor of the State of South Dakota, in recognition of National Hospital Week, May 11-17, 1969, salute St. Luke's Hospital for its contribution to health care, for its high standards of care, and for the educational and technical programs offered in health careers to the State of South Dakota.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the State of South Dakota to be affixed this 8th day of May, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and sixty-nine.

Frank L. Farrar
